6) Supplemental Recruitment Initiatives. List and briefly describe the Supplemental Recruitment Initiatives undertaken during the period covered by this Report.

(a) Initiative: Presentation at Trident Technical College

Three times a year, at the invitation of the Trident Technical College, the Program Director speaks to broadcasting majors on job opportunities at Kirkman Broadcasting Company. Information is handed out to the students. All students are also encouraged to visit the stations, and any available resumes are collected.

(b) Initiative: Internship Program

In cooperation with the Broadcasting department of the College of Charleston, the SEU has developed an internship program. Each semester one student is chosen to receive training in all aspects of the Kirkman Broadcasting operation, including, for example, sales, production, and programming. The SEU promotes the program online, at career fairs, and at the school. The interns receive course credit for their efforts.

(c) Initiative: Presentation at The Citadel

In January and April 2007, the SEU's Program Director and Sales Manager spoke to Broadcast Majors at the invitation of the Program Chairman. All students were encouraged to visit the stations, and any available resumes were collected.

(d) Initiative: Career Fairs

The SEU's Program Director, who has substantial responsibility in the making of hiring decisions, attended the Communication Networking Fair at College of Charleston on November 1, 2006. On April 4, 2007, the Program Director also attended Career Fair 2007 at Trident Technical College. The Program Director discussed careers in the broadcast industry with Fair participants. All students were encouraged to visit stations, and available resumes were collected.

(e) Initiative: Mentoring

The SEU Provides informal mentoring. Three of our employees have at least 20 years of experience and on a regular basis advise Jr. employees on furthering their career.
